

Policy regarding commercial exhibits and attendance at our programs

Arrangements for commercial exhibits will be made but will not influence the planning or interfere with the presentation of this educational training. Commercial exhibits and products will be displayed separately from the educational presentation. All educational activities are presented with scientific objectivity and free from commercial bias or conflict of interest and these precautions will be taken to maintain the integrity of all Berkshire AHEC trainings