

EXPAND YOUR INTERPRETER KNOWLEDGE CERTIFICATION PREP COURSE

FREE REGISTRATION

Program overview:

This 18-Hour workshop will provide detail explanation on how to prepare for the national certification. The components of the training include comprehensive information on the code of ethics, standard of practice, CLAS Standards, the roles, and responsibilities of the interpreter, HIPPA, and Medical Terminology. Be able to understand the various illnesses, as well as symptoms characteristic of each body system, understand the terms from English to target language and have the ability to define each term. These are vital to the preparation for the NBCMI & CCHI National Certification written exams. A test of your knowledge assessment will be provided at the beginning of the session and a final assessment will be provided to familiarize the student with the format of the written certification exam.
